Anniversary of Big Panic a Poor Day for Brokers, but the Prices Stiffen in the Final Dealings.

ATTENTION.

Also a Good Feature, While Consolidated Gas Was Weak on Veto Report-Toal Sales at a Low

On the anniversary of the Northern Pacific corner, which is to-day, the tock market was about as dull as it s lively on this day in 1901. During great panio 3,060,000 shares were It in during the day, or slightly more an average of 600,000 an hour, while day's business for the entire session s below 100,000 shares.

There was but on notable transaction uring the day, and that was the purthase of 8,000 shares of Steele preferred Whitehouse & Co., the price being A commission house sold the first 000 shares and traders made up the renainder. The buyers of the stock have sen on the short side of the market months. They believe that the bot-m has about been reached and took he opportuniyt to cover their outstandng short contracts.

There was some manipulation in both danhattan and Metropolitan during the day and Brooklyn Rapid Transit showed some weakness on an early report that the directors were to spend $15,000,000 for ments. There Genial of this report, but not before it had had some effect.

Metropolitan declined rather easily and Manhattan was hammered down in ympathy. The latter, however, reined its losses.

olidated Gas was weak on the eport that Gov. Odell was to veto the There did not seem to be any effort to support the stock. National ad was strong, and the railroads held teady in the afternoon, after being week early in the day. The market ed strong, but dull.

The total sales of stocks were 117,900 res, and of bonds $1,978,000. This is the lowest number of shares for a full day in six years, with the exception of afarch 10, 1904.

COTTON MARKET.

The local cotton market opened steady to-day with the list unchanged to 6 points lower. This was better than expected, considering the cables from Liverpool. Longs who had carried cotton over from last week were the chief sellers of old crop options. sion houses reported moderate outside sion houses reported moderate outside trade in new erop months, and it was apparent that Europe had also sent buying orders for October.
